KOSZORUS, Ferenc
67291

1 February 1952

The following information was taken from a summary of references dated 5 September 1951. No additional material on Subject has been received since that date.

According to information dated 20 July 1949 from the files of OSO/CIA, Ferenc KOSZORUS was a colonel in the Hungarian Army, whose troops protected Regent HORTHY from the Germans in 1944. After the war, according to information dated 19 September 1950, KOSZORUS became a member in a right-wing Hungarian emigre organization, the MHBK (Magyar Harcosok Bajtarsi Kozossege), Collegial Society of Hungarian Veterans, also known as Hungarian Emigrant Organization of Hungarian Veterans. This organization is anti-Communist. KOSZORUS served as a deputy in Munich to the leader of the organization, General ANDREAS ZAKO. In the MHBK, KOSZORUS is reputed to have led internal opposition to the leadership of General ZAKO. One report dated 19 September 1950, states that KOSZORUS is one of the two leading members in the MHBK who could be considered democratic.
